

Press Release

Schiphol, 25 October 2017

Introducing four new destinations in our Cargo network for winter 2017-2018.

AIR FRANCE KLM MARTINAIR Cargo will operate its new winter schedule from Sunday, 29 October 2017 to Sunday, 25 March 2018.

With our modern fleet of long haul passenger aircraft and full freighters (178 aircraft), we are able to offer vast capacity from our two hubs Charles de Gaulle and Schiphol, on around 1,023 weekly services to 123 unique destinations across our global network.

We are committed to expanding our network each season with attractive new opportunities. For this winter we are proud to announce the start of operations to four NEW destinations:

- From Paris Charles de Gaulle (CDG) we offer you a new service to Malé (MLE) – Maldives on our 777-200 (2x/week).
- From Amsterdam Airport Schiphol (AMS) we will open new routes to San José (SJO) – Costa Rica (787 Dreamliner 2x/week), to Port Louis (MRU) – Mauritius (787 Dreamliner 3x/week) and to Mumbai (BOM) – India (787 Dreamliner 3x/week).

AIR FRANCE KLM MARTINAIR Cargo is committed to offering the best network possibilities to the freight market.
